

Arun - Drums and percussion

Arun started his drumming journey in his college days at BITS, Pilani way back in '92. Mostly self-taught, his initial training comprised a healthy mix of Bollywood and Classic Rock in equal measure. He is a regular at the desi music circuit, and has performed across the U.S. with many Indian bands over the years, like VDaze, Geetanjali, Rasika, Thillana and Pallavi to name a few. Classic Rock has been his passion and he has kept it going over the years, being a part of several cover bands like East India Company (Seattle), Entre Nous, Cumulus (in Washington DC), Hash Browns and most recently, Valley Sound Machine! His influences are several - Rush and Neil Peart being his favorite, and several others like Ian Pilaice (Deep Purple), John Bonham (Led Zeppelin) and Alex (Van Halen). Arun is a rock-solid drummer who believes in keeping things simple and tight. Check out his channel at youtube.com/aruncaddy!
